

CAG DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Distinguished Service Award is presented annually to recognize one person from each region who goes above and beyond in the interest of gifted learners. The recipient may be a parent, teacher, administrator, counselor, psychologist, or a community leader. Each honoree receives a complimentary one-year CAG membership and their poster that was displayed at the conference. Also, every winner will be honored in their region. At the CAG Conference in Anaheim, the following outstanding people were recognized from each region:
