

CAG Distinguished Service Award

CAG continues the tradition of honoring one member of the GATE community in each region for going “above and beyond” in contributing to the interests of gifted and talented children. These honorees will be recognized and celebrated within their region and will receive complimentary one-year CAG memberships. You can participate by nominating a parent, teacher, administrator, counselor, psychologist or community member for consideration. Note that the nominee must be a California resident.

Selections will be based upon the following criteria:

- demonstrated excellence that benefits gifted and talented students
- proven commitment to gifted children
- advocacy for the gifted and talented
- service to CAG and other organizations for gifted learners

To have an individual considered for recognition, please complete the form below, including supporting information, and send it to:
